About Me

My name is Markus Kloeden, a 28-year-old male, currently residing in Germany. I have a degree in Business Administration and have worked for several companies in the field of sales and marketing. I am a creative person and enjoy working on projects that challenge me. I am also a member of the German Football Federation and play football for my local club.

I have a passion for design and have been working as a freelance designer for several years. I have worked on a variety of projects, including websites, brochures, and social media graphics. I am a self-starter and can work independently or as part of a team. I am also a team player and enjoy working with others to achieve common goals.
